

Columbia University — European Institute
Modern European Studies M.A. Checklist

Name _____ UNI _____ CU ID# COO _____ Date _____

Thirty credits are required, normally the two-semester M.A. colloquium (8); a four-course concentration in humanities or social sciences (12); two electives (6); and the thesis (4). See below for geographical and other requirements. Courses must be approved by the Program Director. A pre-approved list is available before registration each semester.

Course number	Title	Credits	Semester	Grade
1) MEUS G6100	European Studies Colloquium I	_____	_____	_____
2) MEUS G6101	European Studies Colloquium II	_____	_____	_____

Concentration Humanities ____ Social Sciences ____

3) _____	_____	_____	_____	_____
4) _____	_____	_____	_____	_____
5) _____	_____	_____	_____	_____
6) _____	_____	_____	_____	_____

Electives

7) _____	_____	_____	_____	_____
8) _____	_____	_____	_____	_____
9) _____	_____	_____	_____	_____

Thesis

10) _____

Title _____

First Reader _____ Second Reader _____

Prospectus submitted (date) _____

Geographical distribution: At least one course concerned with Europe as a whole or European relations with other world regions; at least one course each on two different sub-regions (Western, Central, Southern Europe, etc.) or countries. Courses on the EU count as Europe-wide courses. List using the numbers above (e.g. #3, #5, #6).

Europe-Wide/Europe in the World: course # _____

Country/Region 1: course # _____ Specify country/region: _____

Country/Region 2: course # _____ Specify country/region: _____

Seminars and colloquia: Two in addition to MEUS G6100/G6101. Seminar #1 _____ Seminar #2 _____

Language: Advanced proficiency in a European language other than English by the time you submit your thesis, demonstrated by passing a 3000-level language course or a departmental exam at the equivalent level.

Language: _____ Demonstrated by exam (date) _____ or course _____

Notes

Only courses at the 4000 level or higher count toward the degree. One 4000-level language course may count. Courses taken pass/fail or for R credit may not count. Language courses may not fulfill geographical distributions. Two social science courses not specifically on Europe may count if the final course projects focus on European cases. Many 3000-level history courses may be taken for graduate credit as HIST G6999. See the Program Director for information.

Disciplinary concentrations:

Humanities: architecture, art history, film, history, literature, music, philosophy, religion, and theater arts.

Social sciences: anthropology, economics, law, history, international and public affairs, political science, and sociology.