

COLUMBIA | EUROPEAN INSTITUTE

RADIO FREE EUROPE/RADIO LIBERTY RESEARCH PROJECT FELLOWSHIPS APPLICATION FORM

Deadline to apply: October 21st, 2016

Advanced undergraduate and graduate students at Columbia University may apply.

Applications must include, in addition to this form: a CV; university transcript; a one-page personal statement describing your current studies at Columbia and how the RFE/RL Research Project would augment your degree program, any specific research interests regarding RFE/RL and cultural diplomacy. You may also submit a writing sample (seminar paper or published work), or ask a faculty member to submit an optional recommendation letter.

Send complete applications by October 21st, 2016 to the Institute's Program Manager, Tess Drahman, at tess.drahman@columbia.edu or to the European Institute, room 1203 International Affairs Building, Columbia University.

I am applying for participation in the RFE Research Project, including (check appropriate box below):

The complete program: RL National Archives, College Park, MD (January) and Open Society Archives, Budapest, Hungary (May/June)

January: National Archives in College Park, MD only

May/June: Open Society Archives in Budapest, Hungary only

Name:

UNI:

Phone:

Degree Program:

Major/Minor or Concentration:

Cumulative GPA:

Anticipated graduation date:

Adviser (if applicable) or faculty contact:

I acknowledge that all components of my application have been completed honestly. I understand that if awarded, the fellowship is subject to conditions that will be specified in the award letter. I understand that an incomplete application will be rejected.

Applicant's signature

Date